Mission Statement

The Native Women's Society of the Great Plains, Reclaiming our Sacredness, is a coalition of domestic violence and/or sexual assault programs committed to the reclamation of the sacred status of women. The Society offers a vision that ends domestic and sexual violence against Native women, in all respects a vision of social change. The Society works to support and strengthen sisterhood and local advocacy program development through culturally specific education, technical assistance, training and resource implementation.

As a member of the Native Women's Society of the Great Plains, our organization is/I am committed to ending all forms of violence and will actively support the Mission of this organization.
